

PEDAS holiday to Brussels/Antwerp/Ghent

Now's the time to book your place on the PEDAS Holiday to Brussels/Antwerp/Ghent. We will leave Poole and Bournemouth by coach, in the morning of 19th September, arriving in Brussels by late afternoon, where we will stay at Hotel Floris Arlequin, very close to The Grand Place, in the centre of the older part of the city. We will spend 5 nights B&B at this hotel with two optional day trips to Antwerp and to Ghent, both under an hour away in our coach.

As the centre of European culture and institutions, Brussels has more to offer than most people imagine. Apart from its famous chocolates and beers, there are almost 90 museums, with big paintings by Breughel (the elder), Rubens, van der Weyden, the world's biggest collection of Magritte and the home of Tintin, as well as beautiful parks, architecture, bars and much more.

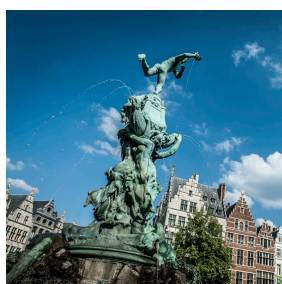

Antwerp is a port city with history dating to the Middle Ages. It is still a centre of the Diamond trade and was the home town of Peter Paul Rubens. His house is now a museum with period rooms and a collection of his works. Antwerp is also home to some brave new world architecture.

Ghent is a picturesque city of canals and medieval architecture with a vibrant contemporary art scene and a spectacular altarpiece by Jan van Eyck, in its cathedral.

We expect the final cost to come out at around £460, depending on the number of travellers. Please use the attached Booking Form to make your deposit payment of £100 per person to Carole Gadsby by 28th February 2018. Balance will be due by 19th July 2018.
