

PEDAS Spring Coach Trip – Wednesday 28 March 2018

Modigliani and The EY Exhibition

These 2 exciting exhibitions are on at the Tate Modern and Tate Britain.

We will be dropped off at the Tate Modern around 12 noon for the Modigliani and then take the Water Taxi over to the Tate Britain for the EY Impressionists in London and the coach will pick us up around 5 pm to take us back to Dorset.

TATE Modern, Modigliani

During his brief and turbulent life Modigliani developed a unique and instantly recognisable pictorial style. Though meeting little success during their time, his emotionally intense portraits and seductive nudes are now among the best-loved paintings of the 20th century.

Modigliani's nudes are a highlight of the exhibition – with 12 nudes on display, this is the largest group ever reunited in the UK. These sensuous works proved controversial when they were first shown in 1917, leading police to censor his only ever solo exhibition on the grounds of indecency.

Seniors £16.70

TATE Britain – The EY Exhibition - Impressionists in London

This exhibition presents captivating works by Monet, Tissot, Pissarro and their compatriots.

The EY Exhibition: Impressionists in London, French Artists in Exile (1870 – 1904) is the first exhibition to map the connections between French and British artists, patrons and art dealers during a traumatic period in French history. Highlighting their engagement with British culture, traditions and social life, their art is a fascinating insight into how London was perceived by the visiting French artists and the remarkable works that came from their time here are not to be missed.

It will be necessary for you to book and purchase your own tickets for the exhibitions.

If you only want one of the exhibitions we can probably drop you off on the way through to the Tate Modern. However, the South Bank is vibrant with activity and restaurants, you can just stroll along enjoying the attractions.
